

Reward offered for man wanted in beating of child

The United States Marshal Service has made the 26-year-old man involved in the beating of an 18-month-old child and his mother in Warren last week as the agency's Fugitive of the Week.

Tyrell Williams, 26, is wanted by the marshals, the Ohio Adult Parole Authority and the Warren Police Department on child endangering and domestic violence charges. The incident took place July 11 at a home on West Market Street in Warren Township.

The wanted man is an African American who is six-foot-one inch tall and weighing 150 pounds. Anyone with information can call the Marshal's Service in Cleveland at 1-866-4-WANTED. The Northern Ohio Violent Fugitive Task Force announced on Monday that it is offering a reward for information that would lead to the capture of the fugitive.

Williams